1. The Food Supply Division (Directia Alimentatii) was one of several unidentified divisions under the direction of the Ministry of Domestic Commerce. The Food Supply Division had its office on Strada Scaunel opposite the Coltea Hospital in Bucharest.
2. The Food Supply Division controlled an organization known as the Center of Public Food Supply (Centrala Alimentatii Publice) with offices in the Frascatti Building located on Calea Victoriei adjacent to the telephone company building in Bucharest. The Center of Public Food Supply was the central organization which controlled, supervised and supplied all food items from the various factories and food production enterprises, to the Trusts of Public Food Supply (Trusturile Alimentatii Publice).
3. The Food Supply Trusts were regional organizations which operated, controlled and supplied all restaurants, coffee shops, confection shops, dairies, in a certain area or town. In Bucharest there were eight such Trusts of Public Food Supply identified by numbers from one to eight (one for each raion).
4. The Food Supply Trust No. 6 (Trustul Alimentatii Publice No. 6) had offices in a building formerly occupied by the Urbana Bank located at No. 2 Strada Militiei (formerly Strada Politiei) in Bucharest. The Central warehouses were located on Strada 13 Septembrie in Bucharest.
5. The Food Supply Trust No. 6 was subdivided into the following services:
